

Dementia Caregiver Consultation Service Description

Thank you for booking a dementia consultation with Adria Thompson of Be Light Care Consulting!

These consultations are only for friends, families, and/or care partners of individuals with dementia. Unfortunately, at this time, I am unable to provide virtual services to individuals with dementia. I will also not be providing any virtual speech therapy services.

During the virtual one-on-one consultation, I will be providing:

- Generalized education about the types and stages of dementia
- Generalized education on common neurological impairments that impact the behavior and abilities of people with dementia
- Guidance in how to apply educational information about dementia to the person with dementia in question
- Guidance in understanding differences of care communities and the services they provide
- Recommendations for referrals for other medical providers to become a part of the care team
- Recommendations for questions to ask other providers and support persons
- General education about equipment or devices that are used with individuals with dementia
- Education and demonstration of the use of general approach and communication strategies for people with dementia
- Realistic and easy tips and tricks to improve the ability to provide care to people with dementia
- A recording of the virtual consultation

I will not be:

- Making a diagnosis of dementia or any other medical condition
- Performing assessments to determine the person's stage of dementia
- Diagnosing specific neurological impairments or conditions
- Providing speech therapy services
- Interacting with the individual with dementia
- Purchasing equipment or devices for clients
- Billing insurance
- Providing any post-consultation documentation

I hope the consultation will provide you with direction or answers to questions you've been searching for regarding your person with dementia. My goal is to light the path and lighten the load on your journey as a caregiver.
